

SGL WEEKLY TEE

By Amy Arnold

10/18/2022

Sorry folks... I had a few work things and then was in Minneapolis last week (not by choice) and my newsletters have been delayed. So let's get caught up... a lot of good stuff coming your way!

Public Service Announcement: Don't miss the sign-up deadline

Golf courses are becoming very strict and demanding to know our participation numbers during the week. We want to ensure everyone has a spot each Saturday who wants to play, but we need your help by signing up on time to claim your spot.

We appreciate your timely sign-ups!

TEST YOUR RULES KNOWLEDGE

Which of the following are considered loose impediments?

- A: Leaves and twigs that are still attached and growing
- B: Loose blades of grass that are sticking to the ball
- C: Plugs of compacted soil produced through aeration of fairways
- D: Chunks of asphalt broken away from the cart path

AGUILA RECAP - 10.1.2022

Despite Justin Szela's amazing round of 69 gross (goodness gracious), that was also his net score and he finished second to Amy Arnold with a 68 net to take Flight #1! Joe Pilewicz held off the crowd with a 68 net to take Flight #2 - very nice! Lou Terranova was also feeling the vibes of 68 net and took Flight #3 - super sweet! John Sandweg's amazing score of 65 net took Flight #4 - incredible! Congrats to all the flight winners!

15 deuces and two Eagles were circled and double-circled at Aguila - too many to name but outstanding shootin' everyone!

Two-way tie for low putts included Jared Nielsen and Virgilio Salanga with 26 putts. Nice job!

CTPs were claimed by David Stewart, Amy Arnold, Rick Chrzanowski and Steve Park. Good shootin'!

Top money winner was yours truly with $108!

Congrats to all winners at Aguila!

STONERIDGE RECAP - 10.8.2022

A smaller group of 15 players made the trek up to Stoneridge, and Michael Broudy took advantage posting a 75 net to take Flight #1 - very nice! June Vutrano was relentless posting a 73 net to take Flight #2 - super sweet! John Stewart played it just right and took Flight #3 with an 80 net - awesome sauce! Congrats to all the flight winners!

Only ONE deuce was circled in those windy conditions and was had by Gareth Broudy. Very nice!

Dave Dean and Steve Katz tied on lowest putts with 32. Nice job!

CTPs were claimed by Gareth Broudy, Gareth Broudy (yep, that's two), Amy Arnold and Dan Gallegos. Good shootin!

Top money winner was Gareth Broudy with $66!

Congrats to all winners at StoneRidge!

COLDWATER RECAP - 10.15.2022

Ahh... Coldwater. I would be remiss if I didn't mention my debacle on the back nine. I hit a great drive into the fairway but my approach went a little left and came to rest at the bottom of a steep, muddy trench. I was going to gingerly grab my ball, take an unplayable, and return to the grass - but that was not meant to be. My cleats quickly filled up with compacted mud and, without traction, I went down. After a few colorful words, I grabbed my ball and headed back up the hill only to slip and fall again. I was covered in so much mud, one would have thought I was in a mud bath spa treatment. Thankfully, the cart guys had a hose! Making memories... but let's get back to the folks who actually played.

Sean Phillips blistered the course by posting a 72 net to take Flight #1 - outstanding! Anthony Carson posted the lowest net round of the day with a 69 to take Flight #2 - very nice! Matthew Skinner posted a 73 net to easily take Flight #3 - super sweet! Mike Marsolek could not be stopped and posted a 75 net to take Flight #4 - incredible! Congrats to all the flight winners!

Three deuces were circled on Saturday - two from Anthony Carson and one for Steve Hulka. Nice job guys!

There wasn't anyone close to Elmer Schmidt on the greens as he took lowest putts with 23. Incredible!

CTPs were claimed by Dave Dean (who had two), Sean Phillips and Anthony Carson. Good shootin!

Top money winner was Anthony Carson with $114!

Congrats to all winners at Coldwater!
